Update on the progress of the Business Rescue Process:

JULY 2024

We published a business rescue plan on the 3rd of July 2024 – amidst some pressure from the creditors to get a plan out for them to consider.

The plan was published – in the opinion of the practitioners, there was some information that was still required to complete the rescue plan. The plan was however published and the creditors were given the opportunity to consider the plan before voting on it on the 15th of July 2024.

The plan was considered at a meeting on the 15th of July 2024 and the creditors requested that a new plan is published – they did not request amendments to be made, but for an entire new plan to be published with a new proposal.

AUGUST 2024

Following the request from creditors to publish a new plan – another creditors meeting was called to discuss some of the possible options for the business.

A creditors meeting was held on the 14th of August and a proposal was presented by one of the creditors to initiate a new type of farming which would assist in raising capital for continued farming processes and to allow for the development of new farming processes.

After this proposal was presented to the creditors, the practitioner requested an additional extension of time so that they could publish a new plan which incorporated this proposal. The extension of time was granted and a new rescue plan was prepared for the creditors to consider. The proposed date for the publication of the plan was for the 2nd of September 2024.

SEPTEMBER 2024

There were some further delays in getting information from the creditor that initiated the new proposal which caused an additional delay in the publication of the proposed business rescue plan.

The plan was however finalised and sent to the affected persons to consider on the 20th of September 2024.

The plan and all proposals contained therein is available on the website of the practitioner – the link to the website is below.

A meeting was called for the consideration of the business rescue plan in terms of the act on the 7th of October 2024.
